

- US Patent, 10,501,837B2
- Canadian Patent, 2829457
- A novel apparatus and method which provide valuable information about the condition of the hot-dipped melt pot snout and steel coating process which may be used to improve the quality of the produced coated steel.